I hereby give the MRBC permission to give first aid to my child and authorize treatment for illness or accident while my child is a registered camper. I understand that illness is not covered by the camp or the camp insurance. I also understand that the camp’s insurance policy is a secondary carrier and that my family’s insurance will be the primary carrier. I give consent for my child to participate in the climbing tower activity, realizing that this activity may expose them to psychological, physical, and challenging situations. I understand that although the camp has taken precautions to provide proper organization, supervision, instruction and equipment, it is not possible to guarantee absolute safety. I waive any claim that may arise against the camp and/or its employees as a result of participation in the climbing tower activity, except those which are the direct result of negligence of the camp. My signature also affirms my approval for the camp to photograph my child and use any and all pictures for promotional purposes.

GUIDELINES

As a Christian camp, we feel the necessity in operating by certain guidelines that allow for the better enjoyment of all. Failure to abide by any of the following is grounds for dismissal from the camp at the camper’s expense. • All youth camps begin Monday with registration from 9:30-11:30 a.m. Camp is dismissed after breakfast on Saturday. All campers are to be off the grounds by 11 a.m. on Saturday. • Anyone wishing to come to camp after Monday’s registration or leaving camp early because of extenuating circumstances must make prior arrangements with the camp director. • Modesty is the rule for clothing. No tank tops or see-through clothing is allowed. No spandex (yoga) shorts or pants are allowed. All clothing is to be near to the knee in length. Ladies are to wear one-piece bathing suits. Gentlemen are to wear boxer style swimming trunks. A robe or beach towel and shoes are to be worn by everyone to and from the waterfront. • Electronic devices such as radios, walkmans, iPods, video games, etc. are prohibited on camp property. Due to the distraction of cell phones and text messaging, these are not allowed on the premises. There are several adult workers who are able to assist your child should there be an emergency. Also, for emergency use, campers may be contacted while they are at camp. • Smoking and the drinking of alcohol beverages is prohibited on camp property. • No fireworks are to be used on camp property.
